Faithful Friar's Report – Brother

What's it like to be a Pope

Members of a Rome Parish got an unexpected chance to find out first hand when Pope Francis paid a visit and opened the meeting to questions from the floor. As expected the first question was about whether he even thought He's be Pope?... Not at all. Replied. Not even he arrived for the Conclave that would elect him Pontiff.

Following his election, did he feel stage fright when he addressed the throng? Was I nervous? A little. Yes, But everyone was nice. Pope Francis answered. But it's true; having a lot of people in front of you is a bit scary!

How do you serve on a good self to others? Pray all the time...don't speak badly of others...because gossip destroys friendship...and always greet people nicely, always with a smile.

The Pope then managed to work in some humor as he said He decided to become a Priest after going to confession with a Priest He'd never met. "They're the best Confessors." He added with a smile – Priests you don't know and Those who are deaf.

PS

Letting the Pope drive

The Pope flew to Chicago and was picked up at the airport there by a limousine. He admired the car and asked the driver, "I never get to drive anymore. Would you please let me?" The driver responded, "Okay, I can't say no to the Pope."

The Pope took the wheel, hit the gas and started going 90 mph. A policeman noticed. Pulled him over and asked the Pope to roll down the window. Startled and surprised at who was driving. The officer went back to his patrol car and called Headquarters..."Chief" he said, "I've got a problem. I pulled over this guy for driving way over the speed limit. But it's someone really important..."Important like the Mayor or Governor", the Chief asked. The officer responded, "No, more important than them." Who's more important than the President? asked the Chief. "More important?" said the Chief. "Who's more important than the President?" Wondered the Chief...The officer answered..."I don't know but he's got the Pope driving for him.

Lord instill me with a good sense of humor and let me drive safely

Faithful Navigator's Report – Brian Shollenberger

The Exemplification is upon us. We have 11 applications voted on and one to vote on at the next meeting. Next meeting will be a short one so we can have a meet and greet with our candidates. We sold $575 in ads, so we keep $150. We are going to have to promote the 50/50 raffles. I am sending an invitation to our new soon to be members to come to our next meeting. Friday, April 24th, we will be showing up at noon for set up at the hotel. Help is needed. We'll take whatever time you can give. Also, if you are going to be there Friday, please bring a bottle and / or a dessert. Let Greg know what you are planning to bring so we don't all bring the same thing. (gjspielman@ameritech.net) We will be sharing our room with Moses Clevealand. This weekend is a stressful weekend so try to be a Gummy.

We are being asked to Turnout for a wedding of one of our own. SK Chad Dawes has requested the turnout. He has also requested Sir Knights at the reception for the bridal party entrance, then we can take the regalia off. The wedding is at St. Charles Borromeo Church, 5891 Ridge Road, Parma. The Reception is at New Orleans Party Center, 8111 Brecksville Road, Brecksville. The reception is at 6 PM. I'll have to get the time that they want us.

This month's meeting is April 22th at 7:30 PM in the Kiwanis Lodge.
