Faithful Friar's Report – Father Joe Piskura

Every now and then something comes up in conversation about the Shroud of Turin. Other times it's mentioned on TV or in the newspapers. Is it a medieval fake or a true picture of Christ? Does it really show what Jesus looked like? No one really knows for sure. Try as they may, Scholars and Scientists cannot solve the mystery. The Church has never made any official declaration as to its authenticity. Still many people accept it as a true depiction of Christ.

If someday soon some scientist could prove that it is a fake, would I be disappointed? No, not in the least.

I truly don't want to know what Jesus really looked like. Every time I think of Jesus my imagination comes up with a different picture. I like it that way. I think it was meant to be that way. I think every person who believes in Christ should picture him the way he or she would like Him to look like. I think the most beautiful art I have ever seen depicting Our Blessed Mother Mary was in Alaska. The native artist there showed her as an Eskimo. In my apartment, I have a picture of Our Lady of La Vang, the patron Saint of Vietnam. She is holding the Infant Jesus in Her arms. They both look oriental. Shouldn't it be that way? I think so. The same holds true for Jesus. What did Jesus really look like? Does it matter? The way he appears to us is what counts. That's the way I fee. What about you?

Faithful Navigator's Report – Brian Shollenberger

I hope all have survived the holidays. The Christmas party went well. We had the State Deputy, Bob Collins, and our Master, Bill Studenic. I want to Thank all that helped out.

We have the Exemp coming in April. It will be in Independence this year at the DoubleTree by Hilton. I will get an order form for the Ad Book for the Exemp. We need to try harder this year to sell ads. I understand getting turned down. Keep trying. Also, I will be trying to make Council meetings to drum up some new members. I ask all of you to take back to your Councils to try to sign up new members. I will need help with Saint John of the Cross Council as I will be on night shift in February and March. We need all form 4's by the March meeting to vote on them as our April meeting is after the Exemp. We have a lot to do to get ready for this year's Exemp. I have a wheel barrel we will fill up. I have some booze already. I have to find my list of what I have so we can figure out what else we need. Any other ideas will be entertained this month. I do not want to wait until March to figure out who wants to do what.

After looking back, I noticed that I put December's numbers in the December newsletter so the November numbers and winners are below.
